TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

Brussels, 20th.—Two dynamite explosions took place yesterday in this city, but, fortunately, without causing any damage.

Berlin, 20th.—The well-known writer Frederick Martin Bodenstedt died here to-day, aged 73.

St. Luis (Senegal,) 20th—The fight between the French expedition and the natives took place near Kerouane. The French, under Colonel Humbert, repulsed the attack, suffering but slight loss. The savages were armed with modern rifles, and it is not known how they came by them.

New York, 20th — Telegrams from San Francisco say that the towns that suffered most from yesterday's earthquake were Dison, Winters and Raceville.

Vienna, 20th.—In political circles the news published by the Times about the offer made by Russia to Persia in reference to the tobacco monopoly is much commented on. It is observed that if Persia accepts the £500,000 to pay the indemnity to the English Company that held the tobacco monopoly, she will be completely freed from any pecuniary obligations to Great Britain.

REVIEW FOR EUROPE.

Business was suspended for three days of Holy Week, during which numbers of persons went to the "camp" for shooting and relaxation. The railways, however, could have done ten times the traffic if cheaper tickets had been issued. Managers are still obstinate in thinking that they understand the requirements of the public better than the public themselves. Not all are equally obstinate or deaf to reason, but none of them seem to be convinced that what suits the public suits the railways in the long run.

Subscription lists for the new Banco de la Nacion Argentina close to-day. The attempt to induce the public to take shares has proved a failure. Of 100,000 shares offered for subscription the London and River Plate Bank has taken 15,000, leading German houses 7,500 and the general public about 10,700. This result is much to be regretted, as the institution will now become a State Bank, subject to the same dangers which have caused the ruin of all its predecessors in the River Plate.

Since last mail we have to report a revolution at Matto Grosso, which province has seceded from the Federation of Brazil and declared itself independent as the Transatlantic Republic. It is to be feared that other provinces may do likewise, as things have been for some time going from bad to worse at Rio Janeiro, owing for the most part to enormous issues of inconvertible paper-money. Several persons of high standing have been arrested at Rio. No attempt has yet been made to put down the revolt in Matto Grosso. Access by water is impossible, the rebels holding the fortress of Coimbra on the River Paraguay and the arsenal of Ladario, 200 miles below the seat of government, which is the city of Cuyabá. The overland journey from Rio Janeyro thither usually takes six months. Matto Grosso is four times the size of France, but has only 80,000 inhabitants, one-fourth of whom live at Cuyaba.

The question of Jewish Colonization still occupies attention. Col. Goldsmid, confidential agent of Baron Hirsch and General Manager, has arrived from England and opened offices in this city. He has published a general Order, defining his position, and promising to lose no time in organizing the colonies. In this manner he will speedily repair much of the evil done by the untimely removal of Mr. Cullen, in whom the colonists had deservedly placed unlimited confidence.

Sir Vincent Barrington, the philanthropist, gave a farewell address at the Italian Hall on Tuesday evening on the work of the St. John's Ambulance Association, and sailed yesterday for England, per steamer Coleridge. His mission has been crowned with the most brilliant success, the Argentine authorities entering most cordially into his views. The Chief of Police, Dr. Donovan, has issued orders accordingly, and the railway managers have spared no pains to carry out so laudable an institution. Mr. Chevallier Boutell is the general secretary.

During Holy Week a party of gentlemen, including Mr. Schwartz of the Boca foundry, proceeded to inspect the Romay iron-mines and report their entire satisfaction as to the quality of mineral and extent of deposits.

A project is now before Government for the construction by a private company of a sea-wall at the Boca, the company ceding to the Government a portion of the land to be reclaimed and asking nothing in return.

It is rumored that the Liebig Company is about to establish a factory in the province of Buenos Ayres, on so large a scale that the killing will be much greater than at Fray Bentos. The low price of cattle on this side of the River Plate is an additional inducement for such a step.

There has been a change in the London and River Plate Bank, Mr. Fennessy having resigned the management, which he held during two stormy years since the revolution of 1890, and out of which troubled times the bank emerged unscathed.

A question is pending between the Western Railway Company of Buenos Ayres and the Municipality about running trains on the branch-lines known as Catalinas and Barracas. The Municipality refuses to allow trains, on the plea of danger to the public. It seems, however, that when the sale of the Western Railway, in 1890, to an English Company was in treaty the Municipality made no protest whatever on the subject.

Every day brings fresh news of shocking murders. Two Englishmen named Hiron and Maybury had their throats cut at Mendoza; by latest accounts Maybury was still living. Respecting the Canelones murder, it appears that the supposed criminal has been arrested at Montevideo. He had only been a few weeks released from prison when he proceeded to Traverso's house and murdered the whole family of five persons, Traverso having been one of the witnesses against him touching one of his previous murders. The necessity for capital punishment or Lynch Law is now felt on all sides.

The Provincial Bank has begun to issue Certificados for $50 and other sums which are (perhaps designedly) so similar in appearance to the ordinary paper money as to provoke much criticism. They may come in time to be regarded as a kind of irregular currency, and add to the confusion that at present prevails from a superabundance of paper-money.

We regret to say that the distinguished scientist, Dr. Burmeister, lies in a very precarious condition, which is the more alarming in view of his great age. Only last week the Government awarded him a retiring pension on full-pay, after 30 years of valuable and untiring services as Curator of the National Museum.

It is gratifying to hear the most flattering accounts of rural interests from all quarters of the republic, and especially from the estancias of Buenos Ayres. Never before have the farmers of this province had so prosperous a year, and the result is that land is rising in value. We must except from the general prosperity the vineyards of Mendoza and San Juan which have suffered severely from locusts, another proof, if such were wanting, that agriculture in whatever form can never be so safe a business as sheep and cattle-farming.

Rumors are still current about the recent visit of the American squadron, which has not yet left the River Plate. We cannot, however, ascertain whether any negotiations of importance have taken place. The Ministerial reports ot Congress next month will doubtless give much information on the subject.

The exchange market has weakened, we quote:—

On London—48 to 48¼d.
On Paris—5.07 to 5.07½ fcs.
On France—5.07½-508 fcs.
On Antwerp—5.08 to 5.09 fcs.
On Germany—4.09 marks.

ST. JOHN'S AMBULANCE ASSOCIATION.

Sir Vincent Barrington gave his promised lecture on Tuesday night in the hall of the Operai Italiani. A crowd of ladies and gentlemen interested in the highly philanthropic ends of the Association filled the Hall. Mr. Herbert, H. M's Chargé d'Affaires, presided and delivered the interesting speech which we append. Having been introduced by Mr. Herbert, Sir Vincent proceeded in his pleasant, anecdotal and now and then humorous style to trace the progress of the Association, its objects, its branches, and other details which were most attentively listened to. He related a number of incidents shewing the good work done by the Association. In the course of his lecture he thanked Mr. Chevallier Boutell for having presented him to the President and ministers, by whom he was cordially received. Their Excellencies had promised every support to the Association. Dr. Donovan, Chief of Police, had moreover promised to instruct the police force.

Mr. Loveday, traffic superintendent of the Southern Railway, gave some practical demonstrations of the manner in which the injured should be treated.

Lt.-Col. Goldsmid delivered a short speech in which he praised the Association and promised to organize classes amongst his colonists.

The following is Mr. Herbert's speech:—

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

I feel it an honor, a privilege and a pleasure to preside at this meeting, which has been summoned at the inspiration of a number of ladies and gentlemen, who, having passed the courses of the St. John's Ambulance Association in England, have so fully appreciated the advantages they have gained by doing so that, they have been anxious to see the same benefits extended to all residents in this Republic.

It is an honor which has been done me in asking me to preside this evening, a graceful compliment to my chief, Mr. Pakenham, who is now absent, in asking me as representative of H. M.'s Legation to preside at the first meeting of this Association, and it is moreover a pleasure to be associated with you, who are the pioneers of a great movement likely to extend over the whole of South America. This is a work in which rich and poor alike can take part.

Our Royal Family take a personal interest in this work. Her Majesty, the Queen, is a life-member and subscriber to the London District, of which Sir Vincent Barrington is chairman.

The Prince of Wales has given active personal support to the association, and among the many distinguished pupils who have benefitted by the teaching of the Association is H.R.H. the Duchess of Albany, who passed an excellent examination in the nursing course in 1888.

Moreover, were I not trespassing unduly on the time at our disposal, I could quote a long list of distinguished men connected with commerce, the army, navy, medical and other scientific professions who have associated themselves closely with the interests of this association. No wonder, therefore, the movement has progressed. During the past 15 years over half a million persons have passed through the courses of instruction, and certificates at the rate of 30,000 a year are issued to successful pupils in Great Britain and the Colonies.

The purpose of the Association is simple enough. It is merely (1) to teach all classes what to do in case of accident or sudden illness until a doctor can be obtained, and (2) for women, in addition to the above; to teach them the requirements of nursing and sanitation in the sick room.

This will shew you that the object is thoroughly practical.

Not having had yet sufficient time to orgnnise the Association in this country, we have met here in an informal manner, having profited by the kind offer of Sir Vincent Barrington to deliver a lecture and thus enlighten us on the object and working of the Association. Sir Vincent is well-known in many parts of the world for the share he has taken in the Ambulance work of several campaigns and for his general philanthropy. He has interested himself very strongly in this work, and with this object has approached the Argentine authorities, by whom he has been received with every kindness and promises of assistance. Dr. Donovan, the Chief of Police, has even undertaken to have all his policemen put through the course. This, I think, you will allow is a great step in the right direction.

The Chairman in returning thanks to Sir Vincent Barrington for his most interesting lecture and practical demonstration of what was to be done in the case of certain accidents said that we had not only to thank the lecturer for having assisted us to pass a most pleasant evening, but also on having provided for us material both for amusement and instruction for the evenings. He had done one thing more, namely, to lay the foundation stone of an association which would be beneficial to everyone in the country, and would tend to bring us more into touch with the people of the country. Anything which tended to this end, and would bring us more together, and enable us to understand one another better, would be a benefit to everyone concerned, and if Sir V. Barrington had accomplished this, he would have proved himself not only a philanthropist, but also a sincere friend not only of the Argentine sbut also of the English who were resident in the Republic.

CORDOBA TO VALPARAISO OVERLAND.

(Communicated.)

Having desired to make the trip over the Andes to Chile, I read with much interest the article which appeared in your issue of Jan. 19th. under the title "From Buenos Aires to Valparaiso overland."

I have made the double journey and, as my experience is at some variance with that of the above article it may be of use to intending tourists. As far as I know, the journey cannot be done in 76 hours, nor at a cost of $150%; but, as I hope to show, that need not deter anyone from undertaking the trip, which is highly interesting and worth the trouble at the expense of more time and money.

Up to the end of the journey by rail, that is, to Rio Blanco, I agree with the article as regards cost and time, only that the train arrives there now at 5.30 p. m. instead of 3, being detained at Uspallata about 2½ hours. Moreover, the Transandine trains do not run in combination with the Buenos Ayres trains and tourists must wait a day in Mendoza. The description given from Rio Blanco onwards is misleading: in the the first place you havn't mules ready waiting the arrival of the train so as to drop into your saddle and start. After starting from Rio Blanco the journey to Punta del Inca may be done in six hours by hard riding only, and this means travelling in the dark of night, which is not a very desirable thing in a strange, rough country. The time required to go from Punta del Inca to Los Andes according to the article in question is 12 hours, which includes time for breakfast. I think it is an impossibility to do the distance in that time, since you can not go fast for more than 200 metres here and there between Puente del Inca and Las Cuevas. It takes 2½ hours to ride this distance. To ascend and descend the Cumbre, that is to pass from Las Cuevas to Juncal on the Chili side, takes 5 hours, and during this part the mule is his own best guide and hurry is out of the question. Well, now from Juncal to Los Andes, a distance of about 65 kilometres, will occupy 9 hours, for although the road here is the best in the whole journey yet you have to pass what the guides call the Cordillera Chica.

This makes the journey from Puenta del Inca to Los Andes in all 16½ hours, or from Rio Blanco 22½ hours net riding instead of 18 hours.

I fear that tourists may be disappointed as regards the cost of living during the trip and the cost of mule hire. The former is rough and dear, and in respect to the latter, I may say that instead of paying $15 each for mules I had to pay $25 and others had to pay $28.

For the information of intending travellers I now give an outline of our trip; but such times as are mentioned can only be kept by one accustomed to riding, and even then it is a tiring journey, yet of extreme interest.

We leave Cordoba on Feb. 8th, our party being Mr. and Mrs. G. P. W., my wife and self. Journeying by the ordinary rail route we arrive at Mendoza at 6 a.m. Feb. 10th (Wednesday). We look about the town all day, as there is no train (as I have before mentioned) for Rio Blanco. This day is well worth having, as Mendoza ought to be seen; it is far above the majority of Argentine towns, and although the locusts have done indescribable damage, it is still very picturesque; every street is lined with trees on either side, which has a good effect. Coach hire is cheap, so one can for a trifle run out and see the lovely vineyards that almost surround the town. The Hotel Club is up to date, having exceptionally good baths as well as table.

Next morning (Thursday) we take train about 9 a.m., arriving at Uspallata about 1. Here we have a sort of breakfast, and leave again at 3, arriving at Rio Blanco at 5.30 p.m., to wash, dine and to bed early to prepare ourselves for the mule ride on the morrow.

This Transandine Railway is of greater magnitude than one could imagine; although only a metre gauge it is probably the most expensive line in the Republic. The river Mendoza is crossed by single span bridges of 60 to 70 metres; again and again and one is buzzed around sharp curves, up steep gradients and through numberless short tunnels until Rio Blanco is reached. The railway is commenced in a good many places between Rio Blanco and Los Andes, but there is yet a terrific quantity of work to be done, including the long Cumbre tunnel.

Whilst in Mendoza we arranged with Lorca and Company to supply us with 4 mules for ourselves, 1 pack and guides, so that on getting up on Friday morning everything is ready for a start at 6.15 a.m. Travelling along the left bank of the river Mendoza (for the most part where the railway will in time be) we have one or two nasty pieces of water to pass on the side of the river where the track has been submerged; we gallop along every piece of favorable road and crossing the river by a small wooden bridge we are soon up to Puente de las Vacas, and a few squares farther on, at 9.40 a.m., we enter probably the best inn on the Cordilleras.

The manager is an Englishman and we are soon made comfortable, yet we have to wait until 11.30 for breakfast. Here we are very sorry to have to part with our friends Mr. and Mrs G.P.W., they having to return to Cordoba on urgent business. After the breakfast, at 1.30, we make a start our two selves and two guides and pack mule; we are now travelling along the right bank of the river and crossing many little icy cold streams coming down from the snow capped mountains; we are not at a loss for a nice drink.

The road is very fair, so we keep good time and crossing the river by the natural Puente del Inca we arrive at the inn at 4 p.m., where we can't get much else to drink but tea and bad brandy. The natural warm baths here are very pretty, of varying temperature to suit anybody, the one at the lowest level is very warm and is known as the champagne bath, as it has a lovely effervescing cream on top exactly like the wine itself. The baths and bridge are all that there is to be seen, so at 4.30 p.m. we are off again; we cross the river by a sort of wooden bridge and keep along its right bank; the road is very fair and we are ascending rapidly; we pass through the river and arrive at Las Cuevas at 7 p.m. pretty well tired. The inn here is a bad one, nevertheless we get some dinner and to bed early in order to start the first thing in the morning for the long ride into Los Andes, which we make up our minds to cover in one day if possible.

We can't sleep well, as being at such an elevation the air is rarefied and breathing is difficult, so we awake soon enough to make a start by moonlight about 4.30 a.m. We are now on the left bank of the river, and we must keep close to our guides, as it is very dark; we very soon commence the ascent of the 'cumbre' and our guides astonish us by pointing up to the sky above us, and saying we have to pass over the top there. The mules are now hard at it crawling up a steep zig-zag path on the side of an almost perpendicular mountain, and with never failing step we arrive at the top safely and set foot in Chile just after 6 a.m. It is a lovely sight from here to see the sun just touching the highest peaks. It is bitterly cold, and the guides very kindly take off their "ponchos" to wrap up my wife. I am shivering so a good lot of "caña" round is not out of place. The "cinchas" are put well back and we start the descent, which is not near so comfortable as the ascent; however, we sit well back and pass down the similar zig-zag path; plenty of snow and ice are below us, and no wonder it is cold at this early hour, we plod along slowly down and reach Juncal at 9.30 a.m.

At first, we did not like the steepness of the paths on the "Cumbre," but after a short time, the mules being so sure-footed and such "vaqueanos," all fear is out of one's thoughts, the mules on two or three occasions walked over clean clear ice on these slopes, where there was really no path at all.

Many bones lie about the "cumbre", owing to the cattle getting off the track, and being left on such barren rocks, they soon die. The Argentine side of the Andes is quite barren whereas on the Chilian side there is plenty of green to be seen.

At the inn at Juncal we have an early sort of a breakfast and start again at 10.30 a.m. We pass Guarda Vieja about midday and stop a few minutes only to have a drink; on we go again and reach Los Loros at 3.30 p.m., and arrive at Los Andes at 7.30 p.m., our animals and ourselves being quite tired out.

Next morning, we take train to Valparaiso, arriving at the Hotel de France in time for breakfast; we spend a few days here and also at Santiago, and return again over the Andes and so on to Cordoba, the whole trip occupying 20 days.

On arriving home, I found that our friends Mr. and Mrs. G. P. W. that we had left at Punta de las Vacas journeyed on as far as Puente del Inca, and their times only confirm those I have already given.

It is out of place for Steamship Companies to write articles on the easy crossing of the Andes in an impossible time, and to state that it is almost a cart-road. I know from experience that only persons who have been accustomed to riding can cross in comfort, and then the accommodation on the way is as bad as can be.

I should like to make the trip again, yet for all that it is really, as I heard a "padre" state at table, "es un camino para cabras, no es para Cristianos."

The result of this visit is that the Government has written to the Oriental Minister in Rio, asking him to negociate with the Brazilian Government for a reduction of duties on the frontier.

The Tamar has arrived with Rio papers containing all the particulars of the banishment of the leading members of the opposition. They have been sent to British Guiana. The Tamar did no loading operations in Rio. Nevertheless she has been ordered ten days' quarantine.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

The Cordoba Municipality, like every other municipality in the country, is in a woeful condition of unmitigated impecuniosity. The Italian Minister is at present trying to get the Cordobese Intendente or Mayor to pay what is due to an Italian sculptor for chiselling the noble features of Velez Sarsfield. The sculptor in question, an innocent, hard working and unsuspecting Ausonian, threw up many advantageous offers to accept the contract tendered by the Cordobese Municipality, at a moment when the fair name of Cordoba resounded on the other side of the Atlantic, when Cordoba filled pages of Argentine history by sending us down here presidents, ministers, judges 'et hoc genus omne,' when paper money, clandestine and otherwise, was plentiful. At that moment a good many sharp Europeans invested largely in provincial bank shares, cedulas etc., so that the Italian sculptor cannot be blamed for entering into a business which he can never forget and very probably will always regret. Even an Argentine sculptor would have been taken in at that moment, for who could doubt that a province which raised a statue to that soul of honor, uprightness and virtue Velez Sarsfield, could ever be inspired by any other sentiments than those to which it desired to do homage. The Italian sculptor is steeped in the direst poverty and is on the verge of starvation. The case indeed is so bad that the Italian Minister has deemed it advisable to interfere and claim payment of what is due.

Our exchanges from Mendoza give some particulars in regard to the evasion of Mr. Julius Ortiz, who established a criminal reputation some time ago by murdering his wife three days after his marriage. Mr. Ortiz had never given up the idea of escaping, and it appears that he had managed to get round several of the prison employees, who are implicated in the evasion. It is to be hoped that the Mendoza authorities will punish these employees. As for Mr. Ortiz, we suppose he is going to get married again.

An official newspaper in Santa Fé urges the local Government to reform the administration of justice, from which it may be inferred that the Governor intends doing something in that line. We hope the reform will be conducted in such a way as to ensure the prompt punishment of criminals.

Our Rosario exchanges state that the Board of Directors of the Provincial Bank, in accordance with instructions from the Governor of the Province, have proposed certain arrangements with the National Bank in regard to the balance of the five million dollar loan. Our exchanges add that the National Bank does not view the proposed arrangements in a favorable light.

A telegram received last evening from Catamarca states that Dr Gualberto Leguizamon has now been a fortnight imprisoned and "incomunicado," that is to say completely isolated. An application for "Habeas-Corpus" has been filed, but of course under a state of siege such an application is out of the question. Under cover of this state of siege, the Catamarca authorities are arresting a number of people.

We note that last Saturday in Catamarca a young man named Stugei had his hand blown off while letting off rockets. The police seized the unfortunate fellow, and, according to the telegram before us, refused to allow the doctor to see him. This, if true, is barbarous. The police regulations in regard to wounded men are absurd. No one is allowed to approach a wounded man until the police commissary arrives.

The Capital of Rosario is at present making some disclosures in regard to a financial phenomenon just witnessed in Santa Fe. It appears that the Provincial Bank recently paid a cheque signed by some lucky gentleman for $400,000. Now the Bank owes the Rosario Municipality 4 million dollars and refuses to cash a municipal cheque even for a few dollars.

CORDOBA TO COSQUIN.

We translate the following interesting correspondence from the columns of a contemporary:—

The scenery along the railway from Cordoba to Cosquin is of indescribable beauty. Great engineering difficulties appear to have been surmounted in building this railway, and dynamite was very plentifully employed in making the road-bed, which is a series of curves. Nevertheless, the trains travel at very fair speed. The mountain scenery is superb. The presence of huge boulders depending from the mountain sides is not calculated to inspire one with perfect confidence, and I may here mention that while we were passing a piece of rock came rolling down, striking and damaging the engine. Another time a large piece of rock was found at the entrance of the tunnel. Luckily the cowcatcher of the engine caught the boulder neatly and threw it on the side of the line. Cows and horses very often try to collide with the engine, and this is another source of danger. Cows in this part of the country are not so civilized as elsewhere. They don't seem to mind the furious whistling of the engine. Another danger is that some day the rising of the river and heavy rains may combine to undermine the earthworks. I tremble in thinking of the consequences, but I suppose that proper precautions are taken to avoid a catastrophe.

There are seven stations between Cordoba and Cosquin, namely, Rodriguez del Busto, Arguello, La Calera, Casa Bamba, El Dique, San Roque, and Santa Maria. The present time-table leaves room for improvement. The concession for the line extends to Cruz del Eje. The concern enjoys a provincial guarantee of 5 % on a cost of $35,000 gold per kilometre. At present the works are being actively pushed forward to complete the line. At Casa Bamba, you are shewn a cave where a nigger imprisoned a young lady whom he had carried off from the town. It is a fantastic story and I am sorry I have not time to relate it. A little beyond the tunnel you see the famous San Roque Dique or reservoir, which is the source of so much alarm to the Cordobese, who are always dreaming that the huge walls that imprison the immense volume of water are going to give way. It seemed to me to be a work of great solidity.

A few days ago, we had the Governor of Cordoba on a visit to Cosquin. As money is plentiful in this province, he came in a special train. During breakfast, H. E. only talked of his properties and other familiar topics.

A few words about Cosquin, which according to Dr. Lopez, means Cuzco Chico. The founders no doubt meant it to be understood that they were Peruvian. Its appearance in every respect is that of a village. A town has been marked out, and when buildings are erected on the different sites, Cosquin may aspire to be ranked as a city. There are heavy municipal taxes, although there is no municipal service. If you want to walk about at night, you must carry a lantern with you. 'Basura' or offal is thrown into the street. As regards the police, now and then you see a man with a soft felt hat, a pair of civilian pants and a blouse attached to a sword—the representative of authority. The Church is a very bare building. In front of the church there is a plot of uncultivated ground. This is the Plaza. Primary education here is in its infancy. There is a schoolmistress and about 15 children go to school. An old pulperia or public house serves as a Juzgado, the furniture being in a disastrous condition.

The Rio Primero flows at the foot of the Sugar Loaf, which is supposed to be 1500 feet above the level of the sea.

People are very gay and sociable here. There is always a dance or a soirée going on somewhere. I must now close. Owing to the state of siege, I prefer not to allude to the political situation in Cosquin.

LANDS IN ARGENTINA.

(Circular.)

Mildmay Chambers, Old Broad St.
London, E. C.
March 12th.

Owing to the great scarcity of money in Buenos Ayres, a large quantity of the finest lands in the River Plate basin, in the district known for its fertility and beauty as "La Flor del Rio de la Plata," has been placed in my hands for sale at rates averaging about 9d. per English acre, freehold.

Such a price for land well timbered with the choicest woods, rich in black and red loam, and watered by numerous rivers and streams, ensures an abundant increase in capital value when the effects of the recent crisis have passed away; and meanwhile a good return could be obtained upon the whole investment by cattle-raising or timber-felling upon small portions of a purchase.

The chief source of Argentine wealth has been the advance in the value of real estate, consequent upon the ever-growing requirements for agricultural purposes. That the great influx of farmer immigrants led to undue speculation and inflated values is too well known, but the reaction was also exaggerated, and signs are not wanting that prices have seen their lowest.

To quote no doubt an extreme case, in a former crisis another block of River Plate land was bought for under £12,000, which afterwards realized £300,000, showing the wisdom of the adage "Buy when everyone"—as at present—"wants to sell."

The climate is salubrious and enjoyable, with a regular rainfall. For the timber there is a steady export demand, and the cost of cattle-raising is small, one man tending a whole herd. Epidemics are practically unknown.

£5,000 would acquire, according to situation, from 100,000 to 200,000 acres of this prolific land, although the lots can be made smaller or larger. The properties were most carefully selected and the titles are perfect. The representative owner, an Englishman of position, is here, ready to afford every information. He has the maps, plans and full official surveys.

Intending purchasers are requested to communicate with me for an interview with him.

J. Keating Pollock.

HYGIENE OF CHILDREN.

We have received the first copy of a monthly publication bearing the above title. It contains many interesting articles by local doctors of note on the subject of the health of children. The object of this magazine is to disseminate advice in regard to the proper care of children. Nothing could be more praiseworthy, as the rate of infantile mortality is alarmingly high, particularly in B. Ayres, where children are allowed, we may say, to run wild. Dr. Manuel J. Podesta writes an article in the magazine, in which he graphically describes the "via crucis" of infancy, whether under the "lambris doris" of palaces or in the filthy surroundings of those hotbeds of disease, the "conventillos". The future citizen has a hard battle with death. It is a wonder how he escapes.

If houses were built in proper condition, if cleanliness were rigorously enforced, if food were good, if water were filtered, the infant rate of mortality would very soon decline: and these are not impossible conditions, even in B. Ayres.

Dr. Coni, the present Chief of the Asistencia Publica, writes an article advocating beauty shows for children. He points out the necessity of taking as much care of children as we do of dogs and cattle, and he thinks that the beauty show would lead parents to take special pains in rearing their children. The idea appears to have taken wonderfully in the U. States as well as in Paris, where these shows attract thousands of hoping competitors. There were no less than 4000 infants at the show held in Paris in 1886. Dr. Coni is moreover of opinion that an asylum should be opened in Mar del Plata or any other place on the coast for children and poor people in ill-health. This is certainly a very good idea, and it is to be hoped that charitable ladies will take it up.

Dr. Coni gives some interesting figures in regard to infant mortality in 1891. The total mortality last year in the sixteen parishes of the city was 13,034 persons of both sexes, not including 1304 stillbirths. The infant mortality is as follows:—

Under 30 days......	1081
One to six months....	1444
Six months to one year	1363
One to two years.....	1422
Two to five years	1192
Five to ten years	545
Total......	7047

Adding the stillbirths, we have a total of 8351, that is 58 % of the aggregate total of deaths of 1891. The most fatal in the list of the diseases which carried off children last year was gastro-enteritis, which carried off 840 children. It is interesting to know that the infant mortality last year shews a decrease of 3383 compared with the figures of the preceding year, that is about 40 per cent. Dr. Coni gives the following table of the usually more fatal diseases:—

	1889	1890	1891
Diphtheria.........	898	1037	623
Whooping cough	85	57	93
Typhoid fever...	509	628	408
Small-pox........	185	2198	275
Scarlatina.........	17	26	10
Measles..........	261	80	55
Influenza.........	—	24	11
Total....	1955	4050	1475

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The cold snap in the weather yesterday was the best thing about it, and put everybody in good spirits and ruddy complexion. The cold pall of the state of siege hangs over the news market, and nothing warm can be published by any editor who has a proper appreciation of his personal liberty.

It may be well to remind our readers that our third Packet Edition for this month (to-day's issue) goes to Europe by the French mail steamer Equateur to-morrow.

Sir Vincent Barrington's address in the Italian Hall on Tuesday night was a great success and attracted a large audience in which the better sex predominated. The fair ones were so delighted with Sir Vincent's eloquent appeal that they declared it would enthuse a lamp-post. He told them they were "ministring angels," and therefore were bound to join the St. John's Association. He also suggested a Bachelors' League (which he would join himself only he happened to be married), the members of which would not offer their hands and hearts to any girls not members of the Association. The fair listeners did not approve of this; and one of them told our reporter that they would all join the Association, but did not want any special teaching, as they were just as good nurses as their grandmothers, in spite of all the manly fads and manners forced on them by the fashion of the day. Bravo! Hear, Hear and cheer.

A "Reader" writes to us inquiring whether the British Government have "purchased" 30,000 square miles of Venezuelan territory. Can any of our subscribers throw any light on the subject?

Mrs. Michael Mulhall thankfully acknowledges $50 from Sra. Montelu... for the Boys' Orphanage; also a large parcel of school books etc. from Mr. John Grant. Friends of the boys are requested to call only on Thursdays and Sundays, as the children are at school on other days. Benefactors are welcome to visit the institution any day and at any hour.

Our subscribers in Quilmes should take note that the Almacen Ingles has made a sweeping reduction in prices for all the luxuries and necessaries of life.

Those members of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway Athletic Club who are football players are "particularly requested" to turn up on the ground on Sunday next at 2.30 p.m. for the purpose of playing a scratch game under Association Rules.

Our esteemed evening colleague the Voz de la Iglesia, generally so well informed in political matters, seems to think that the present dead calm is the precursor of a tornado, and says that "novedades de bulto, pero de mucho bulto" are necessary to clear the air. This is a cheerful view of matters to come. The political ship has certainly been bobbing and rolling in "the doldrums" since the state of siege was declared; but, like our colleague, a good many people are whistling, as sailors do, for a breeze, and it may come when Congress meets and the state of siege is raised.

The projected new system of examinations in the National Colleges drawn up by Inspector General Fitzsimons is just what is wanted, as the present one is a farce from top to bottom. The new Inspector General is doing vigorous and excellent work towards levelling up the faulty State education machinery.

The Uruguay News says:—"Mr. John Oldham, the respected manager of the River Plate and Western Brazilian Telegraph Companies, was welcomed back from Buenos Ayres on Thursday, having convinced the Argentine Government of the error of their ways in attempting to arbitrarily interfere with his lines, contrary to the express stipulation of the concession."

Also: "On Friday while luncheon was going on at the cricket field, a smart game of hockey was organized amongst a few players. Mr. T J. Ashe and Mr. Watson Hutton and others took part and showed they had not forgotten the old favorite winter game."

We made a mistake yesterday in announcing that the Rev. Dr. Smith would preach on Sunday May 1st at Campana. The "locus in quo" is San Martin, and the hour 4 p.m., as stated.

A Paris journal of fashion recommends ladies intending to visit London to patronize the new bonnet, "guaranteed not to be affected by the fogs of the great city."

Quilmes was enlivened on Tuesday night by a "surprise" party at Mr. Younger's quinta; the attacking force numbering no less than 23 rank and file, all veteran votaries of Terpsychore. Professor Ismael's "Matinees Musicales" will commence in the Italiani Hall on Sunday next, and they promise to be a great treat. We note that two of the foremost lady amateurs of the city, Madame Dunant and Miss Lumb, will take part in the concert.

A "mistake" of $130,000 in connection with the famous Municipal Lottery Loan is reported. The Lord Mayor does not impute anything wrong to anybody as yet, but the books are being examined.

A Colonel in the army went mad in the street (Calle Belgrano) on Tuesday night and gave half a dozen 'blues' such a lot of trouble that they eventually had to resort to a strait-waistcoat for the unfortunate gentleman.

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.
It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.
Tuesday, April 19.
The market opened this morning with a sharp and sudden snap in exchange. Fair amounts were passed on Antwerp as low as 5.08 fcs. Bills on France were done at 5.07 fcs., and the rate on Paris was nominal at 5.06 and 5.06½ fcs. The sudden turn in the market was a surprise, but the falling-off in produce business explains the fall in rates.
The gold market ruled very steady all morning; fifteen thousand ounces changed hands: the price opened at $55.90, rose to 56.10, and closed heavy at 56, say 244 % premium Thirteen hundred sovereigns were sold; the price opened at $17.37 and closed at 17.35, say 244½ o/o premium.
Patriotic Bonds were slightly firmer. La Plata Cedulas were a shade weaker. Discounts continued difficult.
The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

Mr. J. G. Kavanagh bought to-day three leagues of land in the South of the Partido Lincoln for $80,000. Seller, Don Luis Benguria.
Five hundred squares of prime land in the Banda Oriental, between Rosario and Colonia, have been bought by Mr. Orona at the rate of $8f. per square.
The new paper money or 'certificados' of the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres were in circulation. Up to the present only fifty-dollar notes have been issued. We cannot compliment the La Plata Museum or printing establishment on the general appearance of the notes; they look very mediocre indeed, and the ink sticks to one's fingers.
The cheques of the Provincial Bank fell to-day to 52 o/o discount. We caution the public with regard to the new 'certificados' of the Bank, as some people may confound this new issue with the paper money in circulation. The wonder is how the Caja de Conversion tolerates the issue of such notes, nothing more nor less than a fresh emission calculated to mislead many people, especially in the rural districts.
It is understood that Messrs. Thurburn and Hogg will come to Buenos Ayres to take over the posts of manager and sub-manager respectively of the London and River Plate Bank. Mr. Wright, it is said, will be named manager of the Montevideo branch.
A London financial colleague writes in the following strain about the Baring estate and the recent declarations of Mr. Lidderdale:— "Investors must also be disappointed that the liquidators of the Baring estate give not a word of information regarding the financial position of the Argentine Republic. "Unless we have political trouble in Argentina or Uruguay, it does not seem unreasonable to expect that during the coming summer it will be possible to proceed more rapidly with sales, and to do so without such great sacrifices." Neither the Bank or any other institution has any moral right to take advantage of the public. If these stocks are sold, someone must buy. The Bank of England could obtain data from Argentine Ministers, and even extract the promise of reforms which no mere meeting of bondholders can hope for. If Mr. Lidderdale's speech means that Argentines will be artificially boomed in order to let the Barings out, then the manœuvre is an unworthy one. But we give him credit for better motives."
Prices at the Tablada were somewhat weaker to-day. The following animals were sold:—
360 wethers by Gaete at $5.30 per head.
210 special Lincoln sheep by Rniz at $7.80 per head.
Another lot by same seller at $5 per head.
Do do Rambouillet at $6%.
Large numbers of wethers remained over for to-morrow.
Messrs. Bravo, Barros and Co. sold at auction to-day:—
Calle Corrientes Nos. 1232 and 1234, seventeen varas by 70 deep, for 43,000$ m/n. Buyer, Mr. Trego.
Calle Medrano, house between Calles Cangallo and Segunda Cangallo, 20 varas front by 58 varas deep, for 15,000$ m/n. Buyer, Mr. Lutcher.
Calle Andes, corner of Cangallo, old house, 17½ yards by 24, for 15,200$ m/n. Buyer, Mr. Banagher.
We may remind the public that the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres pays for its new Certificados in deposit interest at fixed dates and in account current.
The Government will soon create a special Bureau for the supervision of all joint-stock companies ,and Mr. Terry is already spoken of as Chairman of the Department.
Messrs. Collet and Llambi sold at auction yesterday:—
Calle Bustamante, No. 557, ten varas front by 32, for 7,910$. Buyer, Mr. Rios.
Calle Serrano, No. 1015, between Charcas and Paraguay, for 4,900$ m/n. Buyer, Mr. Antonio Ferrari.
Messrs. J. F. Staut & Co. applied to the Government to-day for permit to build two sea-walls at the entrance of the Riachuelo channel and port of this capital. The sea-walls are to be built of concrete, 800 metres long, leaving 150 metres width of channel. The foundations are to be laid on hard "tosca" and the engineers guarantee the stability of the work for 20 years. The Company will also reclaim a large area of land from the river and are willing to give to the government all the reclaimed land on the northern side of the sea-wall. Messrs. Staut ask for no further remuneration than the possession of all the lands reclaimed to the South of the sea-walls. They offer to begin the work within six months and to complete it in two years.
The manager of the wine company La Industrial Entre-Riana has applied to the Finance Minister to allow the importation of certain machines free of duty. The Revenue Office has reported favorably on the application.
Mr. J. V. Sosa has applied to the Minister for the dispatch, free of duty, of 77 cases of carbonate of soda for his glass factory in this city.
Engineer Meliton Gonzalez has formed a company to turn to account the national products of the mainland and islands of Patagonia. The company have appealed to the Government for the necessary permit to work the natural wealth of that distant territory, including fisheries on its bleak coast. The company, in exchange, offer the Government 10 per cent of every cargo.
The meeting of the shareholders of the Banco Sud-Americano was not very satisfactory. The Bank gave a net

Monday, April 18.

Affairs on 'Change to-day were dull. The succession of holidays and lengthy interruption of business threatened to continue this morning, for members were not in a frame of mind to settle down to desks. A slight flutter was caused by the report that the wool news from Europe was not favourable; speculative ripples followed in the gold market, but the situation was dull and comatose throughout.

Patriotic Bonds fainted this morning owing to the unsatisfactory results of the subscription to the capital of the Banco de la Nacion Argentina. There is no remote possibility of the public subscribing the first series of ten millions, not even if the London shareholders of the National Bank come to the rescue. The Government may now be convinced that the Banco de la Nacion Argentina is distasteful to the public; the failure of the subscription does not arise from scarcity of money, as some are inclined to think, for there are scores of capitalists in this city and province who could fill the whole capital of the new bank in a very short time. Intimately connected as Patriotic Bonds are with the law that created the Banco de la Nacion, it is not to be wondered if the stock droops, notwithstanding the advantages accorded to the holders of these bonds, especially in the subscription to the new bank's capital. The price this morning opened at 57.80 and fell to 57.40, closing at 57.60.

The passenger traffic on the Great Southern Railway during the holidays was very heavy. The crush on Wednesday night at the Plaza Constitucion was unprecedented, but the trains moved out punctually. The Bahia Blanca train which left at 9 p.m. was one of the longest on record. A large party left for Curamalan, another for La Tigra, Las Flores, Azul, etc; all Buenos Ayres seemed to be travelling South. The attendance in the trains was excellent and the sleeping-cars were in perfect order and in sufficient numbers to accommodate all. The return train from Bahia Blanca which arrived at Constitucion this morning brought all the pleasure-seekers back with several waggon loads of ducks and snipe. The travellers also brought the great news that petroleum springs had been discovered at Curamalan: years ago somebody discovered diamonds in the place.

The new 'vales' or 'certificados' or paper money of the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres are being distributed here and in La Plata and to some branches. In another week probably these vales will be quoted on 'Change en lieu of the present 'conformes'. We agree with several of our colleagues that the Camara Sindical should give this paper a quotation on the black-board.

There is some more inquiry for cheques or "conformes" of the English Bank of the River Plate. These cheques have been quite nominal for some time past; the bank's depositors refuse to sell, as they have great hopes of the new scheme started in London to put the business on its legs again.

Tuesday, April 19.

The market opened this morning with a sharp and sudden snap in exchange. Fair amounts were passed on Antwerp as low as 5.08 fcs. Bills on France were done at 5.07 fcs., and the rate on Paris was nominal at 5.06 and 5.06½ fcs. We caution the public with regard to the new 'certificados' of the Bank, as some people may confound this new issue with the paper money in circulation. The wonder is how the Caja de Conversion tolerates the issue of such notes, nothing more nor less than a fresh emission calculated to mislead many people, especially in the rural districts.

It is understood that Messrs. Thurburn and Hogg will come to Buenos Ayres to take over the posts of manager and submanager respectively of the London and River Plate Bank. Mr. Wright, it is said, will be named manager of the Montevideo branch.

The Government will soon create a special Bureau for the supervision of all joint-stock companies, and Mr. Terry is already spoken of as Chairman of the Department.

Messrs. J. F. Stant & Co. applied to the Government to-day for permit to build two sea-walls at the entrance of the Riachuelo channel and port of this capital. The sea-walls are to be built of concrete, 800 metres long, leaving 150 metres width of channel. The foundations are to be laid on hard "tosca" and the engineers guarantee the stability of the work for 20 years. The Company will also reclaim a large area of land from the river and are willing to give to the government all the reclaimed land on the northern side of the sea-wall. Messrs. Staut ask for no further remuneration than the possession of all the lands reclaimed to the South of the sea-walls. They offer to begin the work within six months and to complete it in two years.

Engineer Meliton Gonzalez has formed a company to turn to account the national products of the mainland and islands of Patagonia. The company have appealed to the Government for the necessary permit to work the natural wealth of that distant territory, including fisheries on its bleak coast. The company, in exchange, offer the Government 10 per cent of every cargo.

The meeting of the shareholders of the Banco Sud-Americano was not very satisfactory. The Bank gave a net profit of 33,500$ last year, but such is its condition that the Board has been empowered to receive from debtors the Bank's shares at par in payment of all outstandings previous to 1891. This is not a flourishing state of affairs.

The gold market ruled weak at the second ring; eleven thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow; the market opened at $56, closing at $55.70, say 242¾% premium. Two hundred sovereigns were sold at $17.34. Cedulas remained steady.

The Dictionary of Statistics.

Just published by Messrs. G. Routledge and Sons, Ludgate Hill, London, price £1 11s 6d, the enlarged edition of this work by Michael G. Mulhall F.S.S.; it forms a volume of 640 double-column pages, super royal octavo, bound in cloth, with 10 full page plates printed in colors. It is uniform in type and appearance with Chambers' Encyclopædia, and is the largest and most comprehensive work on statistics yet published in any language, embracing 3,350 subjects and all countries.

There is a complete catalogue, of 4,000 items, which enables the student to refer at once to the required item; also a list of 400 books of reference by the most eminent writers on economy and statistics. The publishers have spared no expense in issuing the work, which has involved enormous outlay, being one of the most costly books published for some years in London.

Dr. J. This caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.
Dr. J Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Vice Chancellor Sir W PAGE WOOD stated publicly in Court that Dr J. BROWNE was undoubtedly the INVENTOR of CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to—See »The Times,» July 13 1864

The Dictionary of Statistics.
Just published by Messrs. G. Routledge and Sons, Ludgate Hill, London, price £1 11s 6d, the enlarged edition of this work by Michael G. Mulhall F.S.S.; it forms a volume of 640 double-column pages, super royal octavo, bound in cloth, with 10 full page plates printed in colors. It is uniform in type and appearance with Chambers' Encyclopædia, and is the largest and most comprehensive work on statistics yet published in any language, embracing 3,350 subjects and all countries.
There is a complete catalogue, of 4,000 items, which enables the student to refer at once to the required item; also a list of 400 books of reference by the most eminent writers on economy and statistics. The publishers have spared no expense in issuing the work, which has involved enormous outlay, being one of the most costly books published for some years in London.
